

VILMA B. CABRERA

Has an extensive background and hands-on experience in development project management spanning more than 20 years. Mrs. Vilma Cabrera is responsible in the management of national social welfare and development programs and services, as well as social concerns/activities, provision of technical assistance to the Field Offices on such and monitoring and evaluation of the implementation related thereto.

With good understanding of development issues and in depth knowledge of key national and international issues and agencies; Highly experienced in managing poverty reduction and social protection programs and projects; with focused on disadvantaged sectors of children and women; development planning; social technology development; institutional capacity building; network and partnership and cooperation management with non-governmental organizations and civil society groups and government agencies; community organization and development, disaster management and post conflict rehabilitation and development management.